

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=12840>

Two Additional Candidates File for Jackson Co. Commission

Two additional candidates have filed for seats up for election this fall on the Jackson County Commission.

Ed Lutz of rural Holton becomes the fourth candidate to file for the 2nd District commission seat currently held by Roger Coverdale.

Lutz joins Ryan Shaw and Doug Fisher in seeking the Republican nomination.

The winner of the primary will face Democrat Harold Kennedy.

Also Larry Fenske of rural Hoyt filed last week for re-election to another 4-year term as 3rd District commissioner.

Fenske joins Brad Hamilton, a former commissioner, in seeking the Republican nomination.

Candidates have until noon, June 1st to file for county offices up for election this fall.