Additional Candidate Files for Brown Co. Commission

The Chairman of the Brown County Republican Party has entered the ring, seeking the 3rd District County Commission seat, currently held by Warren Ploeger, of Morrill.

Bill Pollock, who filed prior to Friday's high noon filing deadline, joins Ronald Rettele, of Fairview, in challenging Ploeger for the Republican nomination.

Pollock, a regular presence at Brown County Commission meetings, says observations he's made at those sessions led to his decision to run(Play Audio)

Pollock, a Powhattan farmer, says government should be fair and balanced, and plans to run what he calls “an informative” campaign.
