Pawnee City Council to Meet Monday Evening

The Pawnee City Council will meet at 7:30 Monday evening.

The agenda includes more discussion on changes to the employee handbook, specifically regarding time clock options and questions on comp time.

More discussion is expected on a counter offer to the Pawnee County Commission on the law enforcement agreement. The county is proposing a three-percent annual increase over the next three years. Discussion is also scheduled regarding specific policies for the Library Board and Librarian.

The council is scheduled to meet with Sheriff Jayme Reed at 7:35, and with Zoning Administrator Clint Johnson at 7:45.

Librarian Lola Seitz and the Library Board are scheduled to meet with the council to make a recommendation on hiring a part-time employee.

Action is expected on a payment for a Housing Rehab Grant project and the second reading of an ordinance to vacate a portion of K Street.
