Prelim Scheduled for Burglary Suspect

An Atchison woman accused of burglarizing a home opted for a preliminary hearing Monday in Atchison County District Court.

Raechelle Jones will have the hearing on that charge and a misdemeanor theft charge on July 17th.

She is accused of making forced entry into a home on 1225 Mound Street earlier this month.

Jones could face 11 to 34 months in prison, if convicted.

She is currently serving 30 days in jail before entering a drug rehab program for a possession of cocaine charge.

Another person involved in the burglary case, Ashley Dithmart, pled guilty on June 11th to burglary and sentencing is scheduled for July 9th.
