Falls City Council to Meet Monday Night

Falls City Council members have a fairly short agenda for their Monday night meeting which begins at 7 p-m at City Hall.

Council members will be asked to have City Attorney Doug Merz create an ordinance amending a portion of the electrical code.

Requests from the Falls City Chamber of Commerce for the Cobblestone Festival will be discussed as will a request from the Pioneer Longrifle Gun Club to be allowed to fire blanks from their guns on their float during the Cobblestone Parade.

A request to use Prichard Auditorium August 11th, and allow alcohol to be served will be reviewed. A request to rent Prichard Auditorium October 6th by the Northwest Fight Club for $500 and to allow alcohol to be served will also be reviewed.
