Missing Shawnee Woman Discovered After Atchison Injury Accident
(KAIR) -- A 61-year-old Shawnee woman reported missing was discovered in Atchison as a result of a single-person injury accident Thursday night.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson explains the events of the accident and the discovery of Jane Green being reported missing.

(Play Audio)   RT: :35

Wilson says Green's family was notified after the discovery and came to Atchison to make contact with Green.

Wilson says Green was treated and released from Atchison Hospital after treatment of possible neck and chest injuries.

Many Signals Communications