

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=14894>

Effingham Council to Review Water Measures

(KAIR) -- The Effingham City Council will review current water restrictions and well levels at their next regular monthly meeting.

It will take place Wednesday evening at seven at City Hall.

The council will also hear an update on their street project, as well as open and consider bids for furnace and air conditioning units that were removed from the municipal building.

Many Signals Communications