

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=14968>

Effingham to Get Grocery Store

(KAIR) -- Come Saturday, a new grocery store will officially become part of the Effingham Community.

The Southside Grocery will open under the ownership of businessman Buzz Faught and his wife, Annette.

It will be located across the street from their restaurant and bar business in downtown Effingham.

Faught says it's been a long process to get to the big day.

(Play Audio) RT: :33

Faught hopes to bring special features to serve the community's citizens.

(Audio Continues) RT: :10

The store will be open from seven in the morning until eight at night Monday through Saturday and nine until two on Sundays.

Photo Credit: The Newsleaf

Many Signals Communications