

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=15011>

USD 430 Approves Budget For Publication

It's good news for taxpayers of USD 430, with the Board of Education for the South Brown County Schools ironing out a budget that includes a slight mill levy decrease(Play Audio)

That's Superintendent of Schools Doctor Steve Davies, who says that budget review will also include a public hearing on the 2012-2013 document, now approved for publication. That happened during a special meeting of the board held this week.

One mill is valued at around 19-thousand-dollars for the district.

Many Signals Communications