Free Child Safety Kits to be Issued in Auburn

(KLZA) Child safety is a concern we all share and today, from 5 to 7 p-m, free “Child Identification Kits” will be given away at Auburn City Hall. In addition, Auburn Police Officers will be on hand to assist parents in properly collecting items for these kits.

These kits are being given away to any Southeast Nebraska parent or child 18 years of age and under. This event has been made possible by Auburn resident Kylie Stutheit, who chose this as her community service project for the National American Miss program.
