Nemaha Co. Microloan Program Being Called a Success

(KMZA)-- The Nemaha County micro-loan program is being called a success.

Nemaha County was awarded a $100,000 grant through the Kansas Department of Commerce in 2001 to begin the revolving loan program, which provides low-interest loans of up to $25,000 to new and existing small businesses.

Nancy Gafford is executive director of the Rural Development Association of Northeast Kansas, which administers the program in Nemaha County...(play audio)

Gafford says the micro-loan program has assisted a number of businesses since it began....(play audio)
