Minor Injuries in Accident near Tarkio

(KTNC) - A Tarkio woman escaped with minor injuries when she lost control of her vehicle on a gravel road Sunday evening.

According to the Missouri State Patrol, the accident happened shortly after 8:30 Sunday evening on 160th Street at Q Avenue, three miles north of Tarkio. The vehicle, a 2000 Ford, left the roadway and struck a utility pole, coming to rest in a field.

The driver, 27-year-old Drew Lingerfelt, was taken by private vehicle to Community Hospital in Fairfax for treatment of minor injuries.
