Bomb Threat at ACCHS Finds No Suspicious Items

(KAIR) -- After a few hours of evacuation, authorities determined that a bomb threat at Atchison County Community Jr/Sr. High School in Effingham Wednesday morning was not credible.

That's USD 377 Superintendent Steve Wiseman, who says the junior-senior high school was evacuated to the elementary school gym just after nine Wednesday morning.

The Kansas Highway Patrol Bomb Squad dogs were called in and found no suspicious items.

The "all clear" came around 11:25 Wednesday morning.
