Missouri Voter Registration Ends Today, Kansas Oct. 16

(KAIR) -- Missourians hoping to register to vote or update their voter registration have until close of business today to do so.

Secretary of State Robin Carnahan says her office so far, has 152,000 Missourians registered to vote this year.

Eligible Missourians can register at their local election office or online at www.GoVoteMissouri.com.

In Kansas, citizens have until October 16th.

Those citizens can go to www.dkor.org/voterregistration.

You are asked to have information from your government-issued photo ID ready for the form.
