Jury Trial Set in Falls City Home Invasion Case

(KLZA) A jury trial date of December 12th has been set for two men charged in connection with a July home invasion in Falls City.

22 year old Daniel Worton of Falls City and 18 year old Chance Dunback of Salem have each entered a plea of not guilty in Richardson Court District Court to four felony counts. They include burglary; aid or abet; possession of a stolen firearm, attempted robbery, aid or abet; and using a firearm to commit a felony aid or abet.

Each man is charged in connection with a July 31st break in at the Robert Blain home at 202 East 8th Street. Blain alleges that someone broke into his home in the early morning hours, pointed a gun at his head and demanded medication.

No medication was taken during the break in but a .45 caliber handgun was reported missing from the home.
