Atchison “Trick or Treat Down the Street” Saturday
(KAIR) -- Hundreds of children will get an opportunity to get treats in several downtown Atchison businesses Saturday.

The annual “Trick or Treat down the Street” will begin at 11.

Atchison Chamber of Commerce Projects Coordinator Mary Jane Sowers says children will start their journey at 219 North Sixth Street.

Children are reminded to turn in their pink sign-in sheet to be eligible for a boy and girl bicycle to be given away Monday.

The day resumes at two with the annual Halloween parade, sponsored by the Atchison Kiwanis.
