Man Arrested on 2011 Atchison Car Burglary Charges

(KAIR) -- A 49-year-old St. Louis man has been extradited to Atchison County to face vehicle burglary and theft charges from last year.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson says James Bonar was extradited to Atchison on Thursday.

Wilson says Bonar was apprehended and convicted of separate charges in Buchanan County, Missouri and was sentenced to five years in prison.

He says the search of a residence in Saint Joseph weeks after the case began, executed by St. Joe Police, discovered stolen items in the residence believed to belong to victims in the Atchison case.

A co-conspirator in the case, Scott Parker of Saint Joseph, was convicted of vehicular burglary in Atchison County District Court in June and sentenced to a year in prison.

Bonar remains in Atchison County Jail on 10 thousand dollars bond.
