Missouri Western International Fair Thursday

(KAIR) -- Missouri Western State University invites the campus and the general public to learn more about countries around the world during the annual International Fair from 3 to 5 p.m. Thursday in Spratt Hall.

The International Fair is sponsored by the office of international student services, the Division of Student Affairs and the International Student Club.

The fair will begin with a cultural music program at 3 p.m. in the Kemper Recital Hall.

The program will include music and dance by students from Indonesia, Sweden, Ecuador, Korea and other countries.

Booths with displays of national flags, maps, ethnic clothing and history will be open in the Spratt Hall atrium from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

There will also be international food to sample.

It is free and open to the public.
