Second Suspect Arrested in Atchison Home Burglary

(KAIR) -- A 17-year-old Atchison man is the second suspect arrested in connection with an Atchison home burglary Monday night.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson says Ryan Roper was taken into custody on Wednesday.

He had been adjudicated as an adult in previous cases earlier this year, being convicted of multiple charges and sentenced to probation.

Roper and 18-year-old Genard Rambo have been booked for allegedly breaking into a residence in the 1900 block of Harper Drive and taking guns, jewelry and an X-Box.

Wilson says police are attempting to locate a third suspect in the case.

Roper and Rambo both remain in Atchison County Jail on 25 thousand dollars bond.
