

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=18841>

Horton Man To Serve Probation For Sex Crime

(KNZA)--A Horton man will serve probation, following his sentencing in Brown County District Court for crimes related to unlawful sexual relations with an underage girl.

19-year-old Brandon Negonsott was charged with two felony counts for the crime, and was sentenced to serve 8 months behind bars on each count, with the terms to run consecutively.

However, the prison terms were suspended, and the Judge instead sentenced Negonsott to 18-months of probation.

Due to his age, and the age of the victim, born in 1996; and because the charge was unlawful voluntary sexual relations, Negonsott will not be required to register as a sex offender.

Many Signals Communications