

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=21278>

Effingham Event to Promote Cancer Testing

(KAIR) -- A new Atchison County non-profit organization is holding a night of fun dedicated to the memory of an Effingham woman, in an effort to promote cancer awareness.

(Play Audio)

That's Martha Coder, President of R.S.V.P., which stands for Remembering Sue's Valor & Perseverance.

She explains the organization's mission.

(Audio Continues)

The first event of the new organization is February 23rd at the Blue Building in Effingham.

(Audio Continues)

The suggested donation for the evening is 20 dollars and the event is for those 18 and over.

Deadline for registration is February 15th.

Those interested in attending are asked to contact coder at 913-833-4002 or Deb Ryan at 785-550-6632.

Many Signals Communications