

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=21877>

KU Student from Leavenworth Found Dead in Dorm

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) - A University of Kansas student was found dead in her dormitory room but police say there is no evidence of foul play.

The student was identified as Courtney Newman, a senior from Leavenworth. She was majoring in psychology and sociology and was a resident assistant at the dorm.

The university did not release any further details.

University officials say counselors will be available at Ellsworth Hall.

Associated Press