

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=22179>

Sterling Man Killed in Sunday Accident

(KTNC) - Authorities say a Sterling man has been killed in a two-vehicle collision on an icy highway in eastern Nebraska.

The Lancaster County Sheriff's Office says 22-year-old Justin Muhm lost control of his southbound vehicle Sunday on Nebraska 43 near Bennet. Muhm's car was then struck by a northbound van. The other driver, 42-year-old Loren Rice of Bennet, was not injured.

Muhm was pronounced dead at Bryan West Campus.

Authorities say both drivers were wearing seat belts at the time of the crash.

MSC News