Jenkins Visits Hometown Holton

(KNZA)--United States Congresswoman Lynn Jenkins returned to the local area Monday, specifically her hometown of Holton, where she met with constituents, as well as friends and family, during her visit.

The Republican Congresswoman served as the featured guest during a Congressional Hot Topics Luncheon sponsored by the Holton/Jackson County Chamber of Commerce and the Holton Community Hospital.

Meeting at the hospital, during a lunch comprised of pizza, Jenkins visited with constituents, hearing their concerns that she can see addressed in Washington.
