Denison State Bank Names New President
(KNZA)--A new President for the Denison State Bank.

He is Mike Day, of Holton, who was named to the role at last week's Board of Directors meeting.

Day has been with the Denison State Bank for 15-years, serving the past two years as Executive Vice President and Senior Loan Officer in ag lending.

In January, he was named a Bank Director.

Day replaces Dean Tuley who served as Bank President for the past 10-years.

He will now serve as Vice-Chairman of the Board and Chief Lending Officer.

Jim Birbeck remains board chairman.
