

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=23085>

Lawn of the Year Sought In Holton

(KNZA)--Now that springtime weather has arrived, the chores of the season begin, with homeowners working to see the green grass, and lovely landscapes, that accompany the season.

In the City of Holton, such efforts will be rewarded, with the continuance of an annual competition.

That word from City Manager Bret Bauer, who says the contest is now underway(Play Audio)

How will the nominees be judged?(Play Audio)

Bauer says making a nomination is simple(Play Audio)

Bauer says there's no cash, or other monetary prize up for grabs. Instead, he says the home which earns the Lawn of the Year distinction wins(Play Audio)

Bauer says that recognition will come, in part, through a special display the winner will earn(Play Audio)

The winner of the Holton Yard of the Year Contest will be determined sometime in June.

Many Signals Communications