

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=23181>

Second Senior Exploitation Meeting Thursday

(KNZA)--The second of three local informational meetings, focused on preventing financial abuse and exploitation of older adults, will happen in Holton Thursday.

It's made possible through a partnership between the non-profit Mainstream, Incorporated, of Topeka, and the Northeast Kansas Area Agency on Aging.

The free session in Holton is planned from 10 until 12 Noon Thursday at the First United Methodist Church.

Registration begins at 9:30 that morning.

The third session will be held at the Morrill Public Library in Hiawatha on April 18th.

The first was recently held in Atchison.

Many Signals Communications