McLouth Teen Booked On Child Sex Charge

(KAIR) -- An 18-year-old McLouth man is in custody on a child sex charge.

While details regarding the case remain unavailable, the Jefferson County Sheriff's Department confirms Kenneth McClelland was arrested Saturday afternoon on a count of aggravated indecent solicitation of a child.

Authorities say the case remains under investigation and more charges could be forthcoming as they continue to conduct interviews Monday.

McClelland remains in Jefferson County Jail without bond per judge's order.
