

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=23470>

Patriots Day Parade Saturday in McLouth

(KAIR) -- It's being billed as a "Big Day in a Small Town" on Saturday in McLouth.

The community will be filled with the colors of the flag for their Patriots Day Parade.

It begins with a pancake feed from eight until 10:30 at the McLouth Fire Station.

A parade for children will begin at 11 running through downtown McLouth followed by the main parade downtown at one.

Also going on during the day is a free health fair at the McLouth Medical Clinic from 11 to one and lunch served by the Kiwanis from 11:30 until 2:30 at the fire station.

The day will also feature vendors and displays for adults and a petting zoo and pony rides for the kids.

Military memorabilia will also be on display, as well as the dog tag machine from Rolling Thunder MVPA.

Many Signals Communications