Nebraska Cartoonist Exhibit to Open at Stalder Gallery

(KTNC) - A well-known Nebraska cartoonist will be the next artist featured at the Stalder Gallery in Falls City.

An exhibition of Paul Fell's work will open at the Gallery in the Falls City Library and Arts Center on July 1st.

Fell will be at the Library for a Gallery Talk on Friday, July 12th, and a workshop on cartooning and caricatures is scheduled for the following day, July 13th. Christina Wertenberger is the Gallery Curator. (play cut :32)

The exhibition will include about 60 of Fell's political cartoons and caricatures both in color and black-and-white. Wertenberger says Fell has been on her list of potential artists to exhibit at the Stalder Gallery for a while. (play cut :28)

Anyone interested in participating in the cartooning workshop on July 13th can contact Christina Wertenberger at 402-245-6034. There is no charge for the workshop, but participants need to sign up by July 5th.

The Paul Fell Exhibition will be at the Stalder Gallery from July 1st through August 17th.
