Wymore Woman Killed in Gage County Accident

HOLMESVILLE, Neb. (AP) - A Wymore woman has died in a single vehicle crash.

The Beatrice Daily Sun reports that 31-year-old Carrie Day was driving south on a rural Gage County road Monday morning when her car left the road and entered Mud Creek, striking a creek bank and coming to a rest on its wheels. The crash happened two miles southeast of Holmesville.

Day was pronounced dead at the scene.

Investigators say Day was not wearing a seat belt at the time of the crash.
