

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=26714>

Congresswoman Jenkins Visits Atchison

(KAIR)--US Congresswoman Lynn Jenkins stopped in Atchison Monday afternoon, visiting with business owners, educators, and community leaders as part of her most recent listening tour.

The 2nd District Republican says constituents primarily voiced concerns regarding government regulations...

(Play audio)

Jenkins says tax reform will be a priority when she returns to Washington, D.C. for the upcoming legislative session.

(Audio continues)

Jenkins will continue her 25-county listening tour during the next month, before heading back to the nation's capital in September. In addition to tax reform, Jenkins says immigration reform will also be on this fall's legislative agenda.