Atchison Community Gears up for Soggy Doggy Day

(KAIR)--The 4th Annual Soggy Doggy Day is set for this Sunday at the Atchison Lions Pool.

Program Coordinator Deb Clem says the free event—which drew more than 120 dogs last year—will again feature numerous contests...

Medals will be awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place in the respective dog classes.

Clem says this year they will be having a silent auction, with numerous sponsor-donated items—including pet grooming kits and jewelry—available to bid on.

T-shirts can also be purchased for 12 dollars by calling 367-5506.

All proceeds from the event, which begins at 1 p.m. on Sunday, will go to the Atchison Animal Shelter.

In the event of rain, the event will moved to August 24th.
