

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=26914>

Three Injured in Holt County Missouri Accident

(KLZA) -- Three people were injured in a one vehicle accident about 1:40 Monday afternoon on Route 111 in Holt County, Missouri.

21 year old Sarah Spohn of Bellevue, Nebraska was southbound on Highway 111 approximately one and a half miles south of Craig. The pickup she was driving traveled off the west side of the roadway, she overcorrected, skidded, traveled off the west side of the road again, striking the ditch and overturning. The pickup came to rest on its top.

Sarah Spohn suffered moderate injuries in the crash. 1 year old Lydia Spohn, the daughter of the driver suffered minor injuries and another passenger, 19 year old Shay Brunner of Omaha also suffered moderate injuries.

All three were wearing safety devices at the time of the accident. The accident was investigated by the Missouri Highway Patrol.

Many Signals Communications