

Holt County Clerk Resigns

(KLZA)-- Holt County, Missouri Clerk Kathy J. Holstine has notified the Board of Commissioners that she is resigning to accept another job.

An interim County Clerk will be appointed by Commissioners and the Governor will appoint a replacement to serve the rest of the term, which runs through 2018.

According to the Mound City News, Holstine has accepted a position with Elkins-Swyers Printing Company of Springfield, MO, and will move to a centrally located area in Missouri.

Holstine will serve as a local government specialist, working in election management and support for class three and rural communities in Missouri. She will also be assigned counties in Arkansas.

Holstine has served 10 years as the Holt County Clerk.
