

Home invasion suspect bound over

(KMZA)--A Goff man facing charges in connection with an armed home invasion last September in Seneca has been bound over for arraignment.

According to the Nemaha County Attorney's Office, Albert Jennings Scott III was bound over Wednesday following his preliminary hearing.

Scott faces seven counts—including aggravated robbery, aggravated battery, aggravated burglary, aggravated assault, battery against a law enforcement officer, interference with law enforcement and disorderly conduct.

Arraignment was scheduled for the morning of March 28 in Nemaha County District Court.

Scott is accused of entering a Seneca residence on September 29 of last year, armed with a .380 caliber handgun, and taking tattoo equipment while someone else was inside the home.

It's also alleged that Scott, when being placed under arrest, interfered with the process, committing battery against a Seneca police officer.

Scott remains in the Nemaha County Jail, held on a $300,000 bond.
