

Meeting for flood victims in Rock Port

(KLZA)-- A multi-agency information meeting to help flood victims is scheduled for Thursday evening in Rock Port.

The Atchison-Holt Disaster Relief Committee is organizing the meeting to be held at the Velma Houts Building in Rock Port beginning at 8 o'clock.

People who need assistance will be able to fill out a short form application to establish flood victim residency and receive information about assistance and resources available now and in the future.

ID and proof of residence are required.

Information will be available from the Red Cross, Vital Statistics, schools, churches, Catholic Charities, County Health / hospitals, counseling and pastoral care in addition to the Salvation Army, Social Services, Extension Office and the FSA.

Information on places to make donations and the types of donations needed will be available.

Immediate needs include clothing, bedding, shoes, coats, household items and non-perishables.

Many Signals Communications