

Wamego man sentenced on murder charge

(KMZA)--A Wamego man, convicted in the murder of a teenager whose body was discovered along the Kansas River on Christmas Eve, has been sentenced to nearly 13 years in prison.

Cody Lamia-Beck was sentenced Friday in Pottawatomie County District Court to 154 months in prison in the stabbing death of 19-year-old Jacob Bouck.

Lamia-Beck pleaded no contest last month to a charge of second-degree murder.

Bouck had been missing for several days before his body was discovered December 24 in the Kansas River about one mile west of Wamego.

Lamia-Beck was arrested in March in connection with the homicide.
