

Falls City man arrested on multiple charges

(KLZA)-- A Falls City man is facing multiple charges following his arrest Sunday afternoon.

Falls City Police Department officers responded to a reported break-in that was in progress.

When officers entered the home they found 41-year-old Travis Sherman and the person who lives at the home.

During the course of the investigation it was discovered that a sexual assault had allegedly taken place. The investigation also determined that a sexual assault had allegedly occurred earlier this month at the same location.

Sherman was booked into the Richardson County Jail on two counts of sexual assault, burglary and two counts of false imprisonment.
