

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=67828>

Three to be interviewed for Richardson Co sheriff

(KLZA)-- Richardson County Commissioners reviewed five applications for the position of Richardson County Sheriff on Tuesday.

Three applicants will be interviewed for the position next Tuesday.

Selected for interviews were current Richardson County deputies Rick Hardesty Jr. and Lyle McMann. Current Falls City Police officer and former Richardson County deputy Mike Dougherty will also be interviewed.

The person selected to be the next Sheriff will fill the unexpired term of former Sheriff Don Pounds who resigned in July. The term will run until January, 2023.

Many Signals Communications