

Congressman Watkins to host local meetings

(KNZA)--Kansas Second District Congressman Steve Watkins will hold town hall meetings Monday, August 5 in several local counties.

The first term Republican Congressman will begin his day with a meeting in Holton from 8:30 to 9:30 at the Holton City Hall.

Watkins will then travel to Hiawatha for a meeting from 10:30 to 11:30 at the Fisher Community Center.

He will then travel to Seneca for a meeting at the Seneca Public Library from 1:30 to 2:30 in the afternoon.

Watkins final stop Monday will be in Blue Rapids for a town hall meeting at the Community Center located at 4 Public Square from 4:00 to 5:00.

The public is invited to attend.

Watkins said communication with Kansans is a vital component to effective representation and he looks forward to these constructive conversations with his constituents.
