

Not guilty pleas entered to multiple felony counts

(KLZA)-- A Wahoo, Nebraska man who was living in Falls City is currently being held in the Richardson County Jail on a $20-thousand cash bond.

42-year-old Travis Sherman is charged with felony counts of sexual assault, burglary, false imprisonment and a misdemeanor charge of sexual assault without consent.

Court documents indicate Sherman is accused of sexually assaulting a female at a Falls City home on or about July 26. The burglary, false imprisonment and the misdemeanor sexual assault charges stem from incidents at the same location on July 28.

Sherman entered plea's of not guilty to all of the charges. A pre-trial conference is scheduled for November 5 in Richardson County District Court.
