

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=68548>

Jefferson Co boil water advisory lifted

(KAIR)--The Kansas Department of Health and Environment has rescinded a boil water advisory for Jefferson Co Rural Water District 10, located in Jefferson County.

The advisory was issued because of a flooded well. Flooding in wells may result in bacterial contamination.

Laboratory testing samples collected from the water district indicate no evidence of bacteriological contamination and all other conditions that placed the system at risk of contamination are deemed by KDHE officials to be resolved.

Many Signals Communications