New deputy sheriff introduced in Pawnee City

(KLZA)-- Pawnee County Sheriff Jayme Reed introduced new Deputy Sheriff Josh Townsend to the Pawnee City Council during their Monday night meeting.

Sheriff Reed announced in November that she would be stepping down at the end of the year. Braden Lang has been appointed as the new Pawnee County Sheriff.

Reed informed the Council that she will be filling in as a Deputy Sheriff in the County while Deputy Townsend is attending the 16-week Nebraska State Patrol Training Center law enforcement certification school in Grand Island.

Pawnee City contracts with the Sheriff's Department for law enforcement services.
