

Seneca City Administrator taking on extra duties

(KMZA)--The Seneca City Administrator will be taking on an extra duties and with it will receive a pay increase.

The Seneca City Council Wednesday evening approved an amendment to the contract of City Administrator Matt Roehder adding the position of zoning administrator to his duties.

The city has been without a zoning administrator for a period of time.

With the extra duties, Roehder will receive a pay increase from $68,000 to $70,392 annually. The pay increase is effective February 1.

In other business, the Council approved an increase in the franchise fee charged Kansas Gas Service.

It will increase from 3 percent to 5 percent, which is the same as other franchise fees in the city.

Many Signals Communications