

One injured in Holt County wreck

(KLZA)-- A North Carolina man suffered minor injuries in a Tuesday afternoon wreck on Interstate 29 about six miles south of Mound City.

According to the Missouri Highway Patrol report, 60-year-old Ronnie Johnson of Charlotte, North Carolina was northbound on the interstate when the passenger side right front tire blew out on the semi-tractor he was driving. The truck traveled off the east side of the interstate overturning onto its passenger side and struck a tree.

Johnson was transported by the Atchison Holt Ambulance Squad to the Fairfax Community Hospital for treatment. The truck suffered extensive damage.

The Holt County Sheriff's Office, Mound City Police Department and the South Holt Fire Department also responded to the scene of the wreck.

Many Signals Communications