Victim of fatal Pott Co UTV crash identified

(KMZA)--The victim of a fatal UTV crash over the weekend in Pottawatomie County has been identified.

Pottawatomie County Sheriff Shane Jager on Tuesday identified the victim as 28-year-old Travis Belville, of rural Olsburg.

The UTV crash was reported shortly after 8:30 Friday evening in the area of Oak Grove and Bigelow Roads, in rural Olsburg.

Belville, who was the driver of the UTV, was pronounced dead at the scene. A passenger also sustained non-life-threatening injuries. Their name has not been released.

Jager said the investigation is ongoing.
