COVID cases continue to rise in Atchison Co

(KAIR)--Atchison County continues to see a spike in COVID-19 cases in the county.

The Atchison County Health Department on Monday reported 30 new cases over the weekend, bringing the total number of positive cases since the pandemic began to 437.

There are currently 74 active cases, with 9 hospitalized.

Meanwhile, Atchison County Health Officer Lori Forge is alerting the public about a potential COVID-19 exposure if you visited Paolucci's Restaurant, in Atchison, between September 28 and October 3rd. Forge said the Health Department is investigating several cases related to the exposure.
