Brown Co Commission terminates employee

(KNZA)--The Brown County Commission voted Monday to terminate road and bridge secretary Julie Liberty, effective immediately.

No reason was given for the action, which followed an executive session.

Liberty had held the newly created position since June.

The Commission voted to advertise for a new road and bridge secretary until the position is filled.

The Commission also voted to make the position full-time, with a starting salary of $14.75 an hour.
