

Woman suffers burns in Atchison Co house fire

(KAIR)--An Arrington woman suffered minor burns as a result of a residential fire that happened Thursday in the western Atchison County Community.

According to a report from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, a 76-year old woman was taken by private vehicle to Stormont Vail Hospital for treatment of the burns.

Laurie says it appears that a space heater was knocked over, starting the fire in a corner of the residence.

Effingham Fire, EMS, Rescue, and the Atchison County Sheriff's responded to the fire at 1533 Delaware Street.

No additional details are available at this time.

Many Signals Communications